

NHIA YOUTH ARTS: 2017 SUMMER SESSIONS

Summer Session: NHIA Teen Summer Writer's Workshop (YSS001-MA)

July 10 – 14, 2017

Cost $329

Students interested in the art of writing will explore daily themes with presentations and exercises led by professional writers both visiting and from NHIA faculty. Specific genres will be addressed including Fiction, Storytelling, Graphic Novels, Slam Poetry, and Hybridity. Each day will also include personal writing, readings, and both group discussions along with one-on-one discussions with faculty. The Session concludes with a reception for friends and family while the students offer readings of their work.

Summer Session: Developing A Visual Arts Portfolio (YSS002-MA)

July 17 – 21, 2017

Cost $329

Designed for experienced high school artists, this workshop will explore the process of developing of a refined portfolio. Quality, breadth and concentration topics will be examined through digital presentations, discussions and studio work that will assist students as they begin to understand the competitive requirements for college admissions and AP testing. Students will leave with a greater understanding of what is necessary to create a successful portfolio and potential finished portfolio pieces. Emphasis will be placed on creative problem solving and how to select a topic that can support a sustained investigation. Group critiques and activities will be conducted with an emphasis on process and the development of a theme or idea that can generate continued investigation. The Session concludes with a reception for friends and family which will showcase the students' work.

Summer Session: NHIA Summer Art Lab I (YSS003-MA)

July 24 – 28, 2017

Cost $329

Areas of focus include: painting, printmaking, sculpture, and book arts.

Summer Session: NHIA Summer Art Lab II (YSS003-MB)

July 31 – August 4, 2017

Cost $329

Areas of focus include: painting, digital drawing, sculpture, and graphic novels.

This creative exploration begins with students choosing a morning studio to focus on for the week. The afternoons are a mix of collaborative and cross-disciplinary exercises using a variety of material and with the guidance of the faculty evolves into individual explorations in both 2-dimensional and 3-dimensional and 4-dimensional projects. Experimentation is supplemented with discussion and critique, and geared toward students revealing their personal creative voice. This is the perfect opportunity for those interested in pushing their creative boundaries and advancing their work, as well as those interested in creative experimentation and learning new artistic processes. The Session concludes with a reception for friends and family which will showcase the students' work.

PARTICIPANT & PARENT/GUARDIAN AGREEMENT CONTRACT & PERMISSION FORM

- NHIA is an inclusive community that respects and honors all human beings. No person, based on race, religion, color, gender, ethnic or national origin, sexual orientation or additional identities will be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under any program.
- Summer Sessions will run from 9:00am to 4:00pm, with breakfast starting at 8:30am and open studio available till 5:00pm. Students are expected to arrive at least 10 minutes prior to their first studio class starting at 9:00am and be picked up promptly at 5:00pm.
- Summer Sessions include a healthy organized breakfast, lunch and afternoon snack each day. Breakfast will start at 8:30am and go till 8:50am.
- Students will be required to sign in at the beginning of the day and their parent/guardian will sign them out at the end of each day.
- Under no circumstances are students allowed to leave the program with anyone but their parent/guardian without prior written permission from the student's parent/guardian.
- While every attempt is made to protect the students' personal property, NHIA is not responsible for any lost or damaged items during the program.
- Cell phones are permitted with restrictions. Students may not use phones during instructional time or during offsite experiences unless told otherwise by the Instructor. Cell phone use is permitted during breakfast and lunch, although we encourage students to use this time to interact with other peers in the program.
- Summer Sessions will be closed whenever NHIA is closed. If NHIA is closed unexpectedly, an email will be sent to students and their parents/guardians.
- Positive reinforcement is our primary method of maintaining discipline in Summer Sessions. In those cases where our discipline procedure including parental contact and behavior redirection are not effective; the student may be removed from the program by the director.
- Summer Sessions / NHIA will not administer medication without first obtaining approval from the parent/guardian. If a student appears to be ill and in need of medicine, the parent will be called to immediately pick up the child.
- In the event of an emergency, Summer Sessions / NHIA has the permission of the parent/guardian to administer first aid or obtain emergency medical treatment, if necessary, for the child's welfare.

I acknowledge that I have read this document and understand and accept its terms, not following to do so could be grounds for dismissal.

MEDIA RELEASE FORM

Date _____

Media Statement: The New Hampshire Institute of Art prepares a visual presentation of student artwork and images of students working in class to share with families and friends. If a parent or guardian does not give permission of media release, we will not be able to include that student's artwork or direct personal image in the presentation.

NHIA also publishes a Youth Arts Program brochure every year and images from the previous summer are used in the printed piece. Other printed/electronic items that may or may not use Youth Arts Program images are the Viewbook, Institute News, and CE Catalog and NHIA's Facebook and Instagram pages. Images and names are always used with discretion and within The New Hampshire Institute of Art and never used by or sold to outside sources.

Please check one.

I give the New Hampshire Institute of Art permission to use images of my child or my child's artwork for purposes of presentations, social media and printed/digital materials to promote the New Hampshire Institute of Art Youth Arts Program.

I do not give the New Hampshire Institute of Art permission to use images of my child's artwork or child for purposes of presentations and printed/digital materials for the Institute or in other media releases.
